001 RAVEN Blues

Pris wanders through a dense fog of smoke, smog & constant, ceaseless rain. Neon lights and towering TV ads writhing on the sides of monstrous, dark skyscrapers.

A cascade of Slowly Pulsating Pads sets a melancholic undertone. Suddenly a Lead sound pierces through the thick atmosphere. Almost Bandoneon-like in its airy swell.

Reverberating each note, luscious and lustrous, a deceptively simple pentatonic blues scale - meandering longingly through dystopian LA textures. Noir sensuality.
